

Make a wish.

The stars of the art world and other rising stars alternate on the decks and common areas complementing the innovative design, precious materials and new attractions taking you on a journey through light. From the transparent glass to the thousand sparkles of the Murano glass lampshades, from the iridescent fabrics of the furnishings to the light displays and shows at the Phoenix Theatre, everything on board shimmers.

During the day the monumental sculpture by Fernando Botero “Donna Sdraiata 2004” shines under the sun’s rays that filter through the hall’s glass roof, but at night you can be the shining star of a moonlit party.

Come and find out how you can enjoy the best that a Costa holiday has to offer on just one cruise.
